WHAT IS THE CORRIDOR?

Welcome and Thank you! The Corridor is a free, full color, bi-weekly newsletter published in Yorba Linda, Anaheim Hills and Placentia specifically for Yorba Linda, Anaheim Hills and Placentia. My goal is to highlight the local events, activities and big news in OUR community. News we rarely get to hear in an increasingly digital world. This is a family oriented publication, I will steer clear of politics as much as possible. There is ample opportunity for you to get political news from other sources.

With that said, I want to welcome participation from our community. That means you! Do you have something interesting to say? An event that is open to the public and you want to get the word out? Let me know? Got a life hack you can't live without? Share them. Have an aspiring writer in the family? Have them submit a short story and let's see where it goes.

Finally, as (hopefully) you've noticed there is ample advertising space up and down the pages... hint hint... as much as I would love to do the work of putting this together for free, I can't. I need financial support to cover the costs of creating this publication. In the spirit of serving the community, I am reaching out to local business owners to advertise in The Corridor. If you would be interested in sponsorship, please contact me.

ANOTHER SHAMELESS PLUG...

Do you see these spots?? We need sponsors! One of them (literally) could have your name on it! The Corridor is a passion project and I need help from YOU! New issues of The Corridor will be published every other Friday and EVERYTHING has a cost associated with it... and it's not just the printing... There is gas, equipment, software, proofing, interviews, legal, insurance, time from family... getting creative with time around a day job... to get all this done... for YOU. The only way to keep this publication alive is by the financial support of businesses like yours, would you consider sponsoring one of these spots in The Corridor?

DID YOU EVEN SEE IT?

Did you see that giant blue box like 3 inches above this? Yes, you read that correctly, every issue I'm giving away a $20 gift card to Amazon. Some publications make you scour their pages to find a dollar bill or a cartoon and fill out and send in a form. Who's got time for that... Once you sign up to get The Corridor delivered to your inbox you are AUTOMATICALLY eligible for the gift card drawing... every two weeks... no extra work... just don't ever leave me. No really, you'll want to stick around. I've got some great ideas for this publication. You'll see...

BEER WITH ME FOR A MOMENT

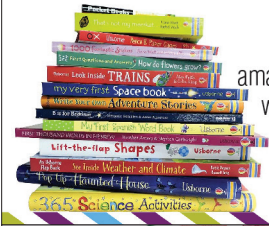

If you like beer then let's be honest we are a thankful group. We live in one of the greatest areas of local beer. With The Bruery, The Bruery Terreux, and Bottle Logic we have world renowned beers right in our back door. Thankfully, it doesn't stop there... Stereo Brewing, All American Ale Works, and several others breweries reside right in The Corridor of Anaheim Hills and Yorba Linda. It's a beer Mecca in our backyard. In addition, we have several restaurants that recognize the greatness of the beer around us. Out of the Park Pizza, Slaters 50/50, Wise Guys, and many others recognize what is available and are providing customers with a fantastic beer experience.

I say all this because we have much to celebrate and much to discuss. In this regularly posted article we will discuss local beers, local beer scenes, what it looks like to explore beer in the corridor, and hopefully some funny stories of what happens in and around the local beer scene of Yorba Linda and Anaheim Hills.

Cheers! -W
